AN INDUSTRY QUARTERLY

Amalgamated - Discovering Good New Music!

Social networks like MySpace boast more than 8 million recording artists utilizing its platform to build an audience. Most are little-known independent acts. Amazingly, we at Amalgamation paired down our list to just 24 - polling a dozen or so industry professionals and journalists to provide us with names of unsigned talent that we all should become more aware of. There are some great names on this list; seek them out!

AMY LACOUR

With all of the trappings of yesteryear's soul sister ala Laura Nyro or Roberta Flack and tomorrow's acoustic jazz songstress, Amy is gracefully bridging the widening generation gap. Influenced by all of the greats, this songwriter/vocalist/pianist is making soul history for her native Seattle. Check out her fetchingly soulful "Same World."
